Surfing, skateboarding, hanging with friends. Cameron Clapp epitomized “California teen” until one night when, in an instant, his life changed. At 15, Cameron was struck by a train. He lost both legs and his right arm.

Cameron not only learned to walk again, he now surfs, runs competitively, swims and inspires others through peer-to-peer mentoring and motivational public speaking.

Cameron will share his story of overcoming adversity and becoming a successful athlete and actor.

Friday, March 7th, 2014 at 10am
Hospital for Special Care
Howey Family Conference Center
2150 Corbin Avenue,
New Britain, Connecticut 06053

OBJECTIVES OF THIS COURSE:

Participants of this presentation will obtain an appreciation and understanding of:

1. The value of prosthetics for a motivated patient.
2. Alternative prosthetic solutions for specific activities.
3. The daily struggles of a triple amputee.
4. The importance of Amputee Peer-to-Peer Support.
5. Resources available to amputees, caregivers and the medical community.

Space is limited. Please RSVP to jconnolly@hfsc.org